Tesco wins approval for new supermarket

TESCO has been given approval for a new supermarket in Haverhill despite fears it will create traffic chaos.

Work is due to start on the store at the former Station Yard site this year. It is due to open in 2010 and will create around 350 full and part-time jobs.

Michael Kissman, Tesco's corporate affairs manager, said the company had received a lot of positive feedback from the town.

He said a great deal of effort had been put into a traffic management scheme and the company was

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

confident that traffic would flow smoothly.

He said: "It is really in our own interest to get this right, the last thing we want is for our customers to be sitting in a queue of traffic."

"We feel it is an exciting scheme. We have worked really hard to come up with something different for Haverhill, with the restaurant in the tower."

"Talking to people in the town – the prospect of the jobs and bringing more shoppers to the town – they feel are good things."

A report to St Edmundsbury Borough Council's development control committee today showed a

"green box" around the new roundabout to be constructed opposite the Stour Brook, with tree planting around a square and the pedestrianised section of The Pigstile in front on numbers 1-10.

The double roundabout at the Cangle Junction would be replaced by a single three-arm roundabout giving access to Queen Street and Lower Downs Slade.

A new road would be created as the main access to the site from a new roundabout linked to Wrattling Road.

Councillors were concerned that two bus stops and shelters had been removed from the plans and called for them to be reinstated.

Haverhill Town Council raised 15 issues which would be forwarded to Tesco and it was hoped that many of the requests could be incorporated in the plan.

Pigstile Residents Association still had concerns about residents parking provision, whether the car park could be subject to abuse at night, fencing and surface water drainage issues, and whether site clearance could displace a large rat population.

Fifteen other objections were also presented to the committee, many concerning traffic issues.

The report, recommending approval, said: "The overall effect of the submitted proposal would be a striking modern building which fully respects its prominent position at the entrance to the town, at the interface between the town centre and surrounding residential neighbourhoods."

■ GOING GREEN . . . Carla Payne and Samuel Thake, both aged nine, were two of the pupils at Kedington Primary School to turn empty plastic bottles into flowers and a giant butterfly for the school grounds.

The activity was to help teach the youngsters the importance of reducing, reusing and recycling waste produced in homes and schools.

Golfers chipping in for charities

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A SHARE in a profit of around £10,000 will be coming to the Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal after a successful charity golf tournament on Saturday.

The annual Haverhill Charity Golf Classic is organised in association with the Haverhill Weekly News and this year its proceeds will be shared between our campaign to help raise £40,000 for the hospice to provide services for patients in their own homes in the Haverhill area, as well as the East Anglian Children's Hospices (EACH) and the Rotary Club's charity fund.

Chris Briggs, Haverhill Golf Club chairman, said 136 golfers had an excellent day's play and one of them, Jameson Burgess, won the star prize of an all expenses paid golfing trip to Dubai.

Mr Briggs said: "It was a superb day, the sun shone and everyone had a great time. Numbers were a little bit down on last year, but when all of our expenses are taken out, we think we should have about £10,000 to distribute."

Mr Burgess, who runs a brickwork company and regularly fields teams in the event and has won it three times, said he was very pleased to be going to Dubai.

He said: "I was quite pleased, I have never been to Dubai and the course is supposed to be unbelievable."

There will also be live music provided by a jazz band. In addition to buying their

Volunteer team receives Queen's award

NICKY'S WAY, the grief support programme for children and young adults run by a team of volunteers at St Nicholas Hospice was honoured at a celebration on Tuesday, when it received the prestigious Queen's Award for Voluntary Services. The Lord Lieutenant of Suffolk, Lord Tollermeche, presented the award on behalf of the Queen, to Alastair

Robinson, chairman of St Nicholas Hospice Board of Trustees and Yvonne Holman, co-ordinator of the Nicky's Way volunteer team. Yvonne said: "This is a great honour for the volunteers who support Nicky's Way. It is a celebration and recognition of their commitment and concern for bereaved children and young people in this community." The team at Nicky's Way believes children have a great capacity to survive the death of a close family member but this journey is made easier for them by being alongside others who care. It provides children with information, companionship with other children in the same position, a safe place to express their emotions and opportunities to remember the person who has died.

Open gardens event to boost appeal

A CHANCE to look at some of Haverhill's finest garden's including an eight-acre hidden haven will be on offer this weekend.

The Haverhill in Bloom group has organised its second open gardens event on Sunday and will have a dozen attractive gardens on display, with profits going to the Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal.

Trevor Barwood, chairman of Haverhill in Bloom, said although the event was on the same day as Haverhill Show, he hoped for plenty of support from the town for those who had generously opened up their gardens to visitors. This year's event, which is sponsored by Adams Harrison, will kick off at the Old Independent Church garden, in Hamlet Road, where organisers will be serving cream teas.

There will also be live music provided by a jazz band.

In addition to buying their programme giving entry to the gardens and a map, people will be able to look round the church which will also be open.

Mr Barwood said: "We have about a dozen gardens ranging from a number of smaller gardens in the town centre all the way up to an eight-acre haven, all lovingly tended by their owners."

How can you help?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help – so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fund-raising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal.

Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible. If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause.

A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842. An on-line donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text. You can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

Youngsters line up for soccer at first fun day

FOOTBALL and plenty of other activities were tackled when a group of churches got together to organise a fun day. The Haverhill and District Churches Together organised the event on Haverhill Recreation Ground on Saturday and it was such a success that they are hoping to make it an annual event. More than 50 youngsters took part in a six-a-side football tournament. After a keen contest the True Blue Allstars, who won all their games, took one age group title and the Clements FC team won the other. There were also several inflatables for youngsters to play on, as well as a graffiti wall, face painting and a balloon race. Pastor Paul Turner said: "It was a success as a first one and we definitely plan to hold another one. We learned a lot of things for next time, but were pleased a lot of people came and enjoyed themselves and we had great weather."

Show tribute to past performer

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A WESTERN theme has been chosen for this year's Haverhill Show in memory of a remarkable former resident of the town who carried on performing at past events until he was in his late 80s.

The show, organised in association with the Haverhill Weekly News, will take place on Haverhill Recreation Ground on Saturday and Sunday and is the main annual fundraiser for LAMPH, the Haverhill-based charity for adults and children with disabilities.

There will be a car boot sale on both days, then on Sunday a baby show from 11am, a dog show from 11.30am, dancing, karate, displays and competitions.

the age of 91, but was still amazing crowds with his rope spinning tricks until he was 86 and provided a popular attraction at many previous shows.

This year's theme of cowboys and indians was chosen specially to honour Reg, who previously lived in Shetland Road, Haverhill, after moving to the town in 1982.

Reg spent most of his life as a professional musician, including belonging to Lord Rockingham's 11 in the 1950s and appearing on the Oh Boy television show with Cliff Richard and others, then the Royal Variety show. The group went on to have a No 1 hit with Hoots Mon – currently used in an advert for wine gums – and Reg organised sessions for the BBC and taught other musicians, including the drummer for Thin Lizzy.

Reg's wife died in 1990 and as he suffered from arthritis he took up rope spinning to keep his fingers supple, following an interest in western activities he had from childhood. As a true perfectionist he practised for five years before performing in public, then went on to do many shows for various charities.

Ron Neaves, a close friend and neighbour of Reg at his previous home in Hounslow plans to visit Haverhill for the show on Sunday to tell people more about his friend's interesting life.

Inspectors give school good marks

OFSTED inspectors have rated Burton End Primary in Haverhill as "a good school" and graded it above average in many areas.

Their report said: "Pupils' rate of progress improves as they move through the school. This is because the headteacher and senior staff have high expectations for each pupil and thorough tracking of their progress ensure that extra support is given for any who are falling behind or forging ahead."

"All pupils, including those who find it hard to learn and those who speak English as an additional language, make good overall progress from their starting points and achieve well."

"Good leadership and management contribute positively to the school's success. The school is emerging from a difficult period with no deputy head teacher and a temporary leadership team, but the head teacher and governors have ensured that the management of the school has effectively been shared to make best use of individual skills and to maintain standards.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

"The headteacher has high expectations of what the pupils can achieve and challenging targets are now helping to raise standards for all pupils."

Inspectors found that although initially pupils came to the school with standards below national averages, they quickly caught up.

By Year 4 they were above national expectations in reading, writing and mathematics.

The exciting curriculum, enriched by a wide range of visits and visitors, interests the pupils and encourages them to learn. Behaviour is good and pupils are polite and friendly.

■ GOOD SCHOOL . . . pupils at Burton End Primary with head teacher Fay Teussler.

The older pupils enjoy helping the younger ones. Pupils enjoy going to school but attendance is average despite the school's considerable efforts to improve it.

There is a good emphasis on keeping safe and pupils contribute to the community well. Pupils have the opportunity to take on responsibilities through a range of jobs and the school council.

They particularly enjoy learning in the school grounds and as a result, show good care for the school environment.

The governors watch over the school effectively. They are committed and are keen for the school to do its best.

The quality of teaching is good and lessons make learning fun.

What the school should do to improve further:

■ Develop a more rigorous system for monitoring the quality of teaching and learning, to ensure greater consistency.

■ Strengthen the roles of the leadership team in order to increase further the pace of improvement throughout the school.

Pupils turn plastic waste into flowers

EMPTY plastic bottles were transformed into pretty flowers and a giant butterfly by environmentally friendly primary school children. Pupils at Kedington Primary School used waste materials they had collected over the past few weeks to transform them into plastic bottle flowers and a giant butterfly to adorn the school grounds. The activity formed part of a special day set aside to explore design technology and science. The children, aged four to nine, learned about different materials, where they come from and why it is important to reduce, reuse and recycle the waste produced in homes and schools. The activity was organised jointly by Suffolk County Council and St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

Man freed after arrest

A 36-YEAR-OLD Bury St Edmunds man arrested after a robbery at a garage in Haverhill has been released without charge.

Staff at the North Street garage in Manor Road, Haverhill, were confronted by a man at 9.55pm last Friday who said he had a gun and showed them a gun-shaped object in a plastic bag.

He was given a quantity of cash and left.

Police have now said that no further action would be taken against a man who had been arrested and released on bail.

Any witnesses or customers who were in the garage at or around the time of the robbery should contact Suffolk Police on (01473) 613500.

100,000 hours of work done by offenders

MORE than 100,000 hours of unpaid work were carried out by offenders in Suffolk last year and probation officers have denied that community sentences are a soft option.

Latest figures show offenders serving community sentences in Suffolk carried out more than 115,000 hours of unpaid work last year. In 2007/08 Suffolk Probation Area supervised 1,469 offenders who had been given community sentences.

These sentences included community orders and suspended prison sentences, which can both have up to 12 conditions such as unpaid work, a curfew restriction or doing courses to help offenders to break away from crime.

Projects included maintaining elderly people's gardens for Havebury Housing Partnership, clearing litter and painting over graffiti.

In the last six years, Suffolk Probation Area has seen an average increase in community sentences of 17.3 per cent.

The Government has just given Suffolk Probation an extra £397,000 to further increase the area's capacity to deliver effective community sentences.

Suffolk Probation Area Chief Officer John Budd said: "Community sentences are not a soft option. We have an excellent record in Suffolk for enforcing them through the courts. But it is not just about punishment, community sentences are also vital for moving offenders away from crime, as well as ensuring that they make reparations to the community."

BY Jo Deeks
Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Tough community sentences have proved more effective in reducing crime and stopping re-offending, according to a new Government report Community Sentencing - Reducing Re-offending, Changing Lives.

Probation Minister David Hanson said: "We have a duty to ensure that we provide punishments which are most effective in cutting re-offending. The truth is that for many offenders community sentences are more effective than short-term prison sentences."

Safer solution would be a dual carriageway

Sir, I write with increasing dismay at yet another fatality on the A1307.

However, a major point that does not seem to be aired by the public or the authorities is that it is not the fault of the road, it is the road users who drive too fast and without due care and attention.

The road between Haverhill, Halstead and Colchester is far trickier to negotiate, yet serious accidents on this stretch are almost unheard of. Indeed, before the Haverhill to Four Went Ways section of the old A604 was improved, the accident rate was nothing like it is these days.

The section of dual carriageway between Horseheath and Linton gives drivers a false sense of safety.

This section is followed by the single stretch down the hill coupled with two junctions out of Linton and one towards Bartlow. Surely a safer solution would be to make the entire road dual carriageway with long slip roads at the above junctions.

This, of course, would be an expensive solution but how many more people have to die before we come to our senses?

I appeal for all drivers to slow down and drive a lot more carefully.

Thanks for our fantastic day

Sir, Please can we thank "Play Daze", play centre at Linton via your newspaper?

Our pre-school visited on June 26 with children aged two to four years and we had a fantastic time. We also had two babies with us and they had lots of things to keep them happy too.

All the children had a great time and were all worn out by the time we arrived back at the nursery.

The service we received was fantastic; the staff were all very friendly and really helpful. The lovely healthy lunch that was made for the children was great. We just wanted to say a big thank you for making us so welcome. We will certainly recommend you to other people and we all look forward to returning for another visit soon.

Vandals attacking special workshop

■ LEAVE US ALONE... Woodn'stuff manager Anne White with some of the damage.
Picture: Duncan Lamont 495834.

VANDALS have hit a workshop for people with disabilities for the third time and its manager is pleading with them to leave the premises alone.

Woodn'stuff in Rookwood Way, Haverhill, has been operating for more than five years, allowing people with various disabilities to go along and make decorative garden items such as tables and chairs, hanging baskets and wheelbarrows.

Pc Sonia Plume, a local beat officer for Suffolk Police, urged people to come forward with any information about the damage, after windows were smashed at the premises for the second weekend running and hanging baskets stolen. She said: "It is pure vandalism and hopefully if people realise the sort of place that it is, they will leave it alone."

Anne White, manager at Woodn'stuff, said about five months ago the premises were attacked and furniture and other items broken. For the past two weekends there had been windows smashed,

Email:
editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

on one occasion milk bottles taken from a crate and smashed everywhere, and on the second occasion two hanging baskets were taken.

Mrs White said: "We have no idea why they should target us. We cater for more than 30 people with various disabilities from MS and cerebral palsy, to people who have had strokes."

"We help them to get back into the workplace again. Some of the items are sold and some they take to their homes."

"We are a not-for-profit group that is here to help people and it is really sad that people want to destroy that."

"Why spoil things for people who are not doing anybody any harm and just enjoying themselves? These people can become quite isolated and it can be quite difficult for them to get employment."

Anyone with any information about the damage should contact Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100.

Sandwich bar & Café

Popular eaterie caters to an expanding social whirl

A BUSINESS started from a desire for a decent cup of coffee has grown to such a phenomenal success that its second premises has just been opened.

Harry Zachariou and his wife Tia opened the Déjà Vu coffee and sandwich shop in Queen Street, Haverhill, in March 2003, as Harry found himself taking her to nearby towns and their coffee shops because Haverhill had none suitable.

Tia designed the smart interior of the shop and painted it herself. Alongside the busy shop, a large outside catering business has also been established, as well as supplying sandwiches to many garages in the area. Customers regularly queue out of the door, happy to wait to have their sandwich or salad made just how they like it and now a second Déjà Vu has opened in Jubilee Walk, this time aimed mainly at people in a hurry.

The new shop is open from 7am so that traders and others heading for work can find a hot bacon baguette or sausage roll waiting for them. There is plenty of parking space in the nearby car park early in the morning, so that workers can meet up there, and it is planned to offer Early Bird specials to entice them in for breakfast. The new shop also has a large upstairs seating area, which tends to be quieter and is an ideal place for a business meeting. One group of ladies has already arranged to meet there in the evening and Harry is happy to accommodate others.

Harry welcomes the arrival of the Subway chain shop at the nearby cinema complex and feels it will help the town develop an evening economy. He said: "Haverhill is growing so fast and I think there is room for everyone. The main thing is to have more things to keep people in the town instead of going to Cambridge or Bury. Whenever we go to the cinema we see people from Haverhill, so it will be great for them to be able to stay in the town."

"Right from the first week we knew it was going to be a success, at first it was the coffee, but people just love bespoke sandwiches and salads. They like to be fussy and have just what they want. We bake all our baguettes and I only use branded products. Heinz ketchup is more expensive for a reason, because it tastes better. Now we include smoothies and milkshakes with real strawberries in them. People have given me the chance and we have a lot of loyal customers and I believe we have invested in the town to enhance it."

Meal Deals and loyalty cards are provided and the Jubilee Walk shop is open from 7am-4.30pm on Monday to Saturday, and 10am to 2.30pm on Sunday.

Anyone interested in using the premises can ring (01440) 707171.

Dispersal order a success, say police

CALLS to the police have dropped dramatically since a dispersal order was imposed six weeks ago at a previous trouble spot.

The order, covering an area around Howe Road, Haverhill, allows officers to disperse any people who are behaving in an intimidating or anti-social way.

It also makes it an offence for those moved on to return within 24 hours.

Since the order was imposed on May 9, Suffolk police have received just one call about anti-social behaviour in the area, compared with eight over the same period last year.

Officers have carried out regular patrols, and on most evenings the only people in the area were using it for its intended purpose.

Five youths were dispersed from the area in the first six weeks, alcohol was confiscated

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

from them and they were banned from entering the dispersal area for 24 hours.

Haverhill Neighbourhood Inspector Andy Smith is pleased with the response so far. He said: "The minority of young people who were gathering in the area around Howe Road, drinking and littering and causing a nuisance, seem to have taken note of the order."

"The one call we received was from a member of the public who was aware of the dispersal order and felt empowered to ask the youths to leave the area himself. It appears local people feel more confident in calling the police if they do experience any anti-social behaviour in and around Howe Road, they understand the powers given to officers by the order and know that we can take positive action."

Pc Rupert Beynon, who covers the area, said: "People I have spoken to at the local shop are in favour of the order, and tell me noise levels coming from the skatepark and railway line after dark have dropped."

Town and borough councillor Anne Gower said: "I have seen people of various ages using and enjoying the skate park and the play areas. It is good to see the mums and younger children using the area now they feel safe, and the whole place is much cleaner. The skateboarders obviously feel less intimidated and are keener to use the facilities."

"I am delighted at the success of this dispersal order so far, and will be maintaining a keen watch on how things develop."

■ RAISING FUNDS... Bill Daniels on his bike at Castle Camps motor bike show.

Motor bike show a roaring success

HARLEY Davidsons and other classic machines gleamed in the sunshine at a motorbike show in Castle Camps on Saturday. Hundreds of motorbikes were attracted to the second show in the village. Residents were admitted for free but visitors paid and organisers hope to raise about £1,000 for the maintenance of Castle Camps village hall. Terry Chapman, village hall chairman, said the bikes on display ranged from modern machines costing more than £20,000 to some classic and exotic examples. He said: "We had some very good weather, it was 10 times better than last year. There were several hundred bikes, with a number of clubs taking part and we awarded prizes in several categories. It was a very enjoyable event and we expect to have made a substantial profit for the upkeep of the village hall."

A WESTERN theme has been chosen for this weekend's Haverhill Show in memory of a remarkable former resident of the town who carried on performing at past events until he was in his late 80s.

The Haverhill Show, organised in association with the Haverhill Weekly News, takes place on Haverhill Recreation Ground on Saturday, July 5 and Sunday July 6, and is the main annual fund raiser for LAMP H, the Haverhill-based charity for adults and children with disabilities.

Reg Weller died last year at the age of 91, but was still amazing crowds with his rope spinning tricks until he was 86 and provided a popular attraction at many previous shows in the late 1990s and early 2000s. This year's theme of cowboys and Indians was chosen specially to honour Reg, who previously lived in Shetland Road, Haverhill.

Visitors to the Show are invited to join in the fun by wearing fancy dress outfits as either cowboys or Indians. New attractions this year include a Reptile Marquee and there will also be plenty of audience participation and contests such as Glamorous Granny in the main arena from 3pm.

There will be a car boot sale from 8am on both days, and anyone wanting to take part can turn up on the day and pay £6. On Sunday a Methodist Church service will be held on the Bandstand at 10am to get the show started. Sunday's programme of events is: 11am baby show, 11.30am dog show. Main arena: 11am Colette's Entertainment School, 11.35am cars, motorbikes and scooters, 12.05pm Dell School of Dance, 12.35pm tribute to Reg Weller, 1.06pm CB9 Factor, 1.35pm Tang Soo Do Karate, 2.30pm Wild West Fancy Dress, 3pm Glamorous Granny, Knobbly Knees and audience pass the parcel, 4.20pm ticket winners announcement.

Reg spent most of his life as a professional musician, including belonging to Lord Rockingham's 11 in the 1950s and appearing on the 'Oh Boy' television show with Cliff Richard and others, then the Royal Variety show. As Reg suffered from arthritis he took up rope spinning to keep his fingers supple, following an interest in western activities he had from childhood. As a true loofectionist he practiced for five years before performing in public, then went on to do many shows for various charities.

Ron Neaves, a close friend and neighbour of Reg at his previous home in Hounslow plans to visit Haverhill for the Show. Ron said: "He was an amazing man, he was a true professional in everything that he did. He would have said 'why?' if he knew the show was in his memory, as he never thought he was that good at anything. I think it is marvellous and I think he would have loved it."

Dancers raise cash for charity

YOUNGSTERS have been demonstrating their dancing talents and raising more than £400 for charity.

The Lisa Mason School of Dance took a large group of dancers to Eastcotts Nursing Home, performing for residents.

The dancers have also performed their summer stage show "Shine".

Lisa Mason said: "The children danced beautifully and really enjoyed the opportunity to perform some of their routines. The residents and staff were most generous with their praise and we look forward to returning to Eastcotts in the future."

"The dancers, children and adults, worked extremely hard in preparing for the show, and the performances really were a celebration of their enthusiasm and hard work. All the routines looked amazing and were of high quality." The evening was further enhanced by a demonstration from Tang Soo Do, the martial arts club in Haverhill, who performed during the interval. The school raised £420 for East Anglia's Children's Hospices (EACH).

Police officers are linking raids on homes in town

A BURGLARY where intruders got in through a window and another attempted burglary where the culprit was disturbed by the occupier are being linked by Haverhill police.

In the first incident at Helions Park Avenue, Haverhill, intruders got into a house through an insecure window at about 8.10pm on Sunday and stole items including an Xbox, DVDs, games, bags, jewellery, mobile phones and paintball equipment.

Three people were seen running towards the recreation ground.

Views needed on BT plans to remove 42 public pay phones

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial
@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

RESIDENTS in St Edmundsbury are being asked for their views on the removal of 42 public pay phones in the borough, mainly in rural locations.

BT, which owns the payphones and boxes, wants to remove the ones that are not used very often.

It is first legally obliged to consult St Edmundsbury Borough Council, which is now asking for the views of members of the public, before responding.

BT will not be able to remove a payphone if the local authority has responded with a justified objection.

The council has assessed the importance of each phone and consulted with parish and community councils.

The key considerations in the decision making process include public call revenue, the number of households in the area, the housing type in the area, mobile phone coverage and emergency use.

This has highlighted

18 pay phones which it is felt should be retained.

These include one at Chalkstone Way, Haverhill, two at Wickhambrook, one at Kedington, one at Stradishall and one at Ousden.

They are included in a draft decision, which is open to public consultation until July 24.

The responses will be discussed at the cabinet meeting on July 30, and BT will be notified before the closing date of August 4.

Full details are posted on the council website.

Anyone who wants to take part in this consultation can email ben.woolnough@stedsb.gov.uk or write to Planning and Engineering Services, St Edmundsbury Borough Council, St Edmundsbury House, Western Way, Bury St Edmunds, IP33 3YU.

Community police team wins praise

POLICE officers have been praised for their safer neighbourhood team area having the lowest crime rate in the district for two months.

The St Edmundsbury Rural South Safer Neighbourhood Team has been praised for its high standards and performance at a meeting with chief officers earlier this month.

The area, covering the wards of Hundon, Kedington and Withersfield, Wickhambrook, Cavendish, Clare and Chedburgh had the lowest rate of recorded crime in the St Edmundsbury district for the first two months of the recording year (April and May).

There were 62 crimes, a reduction of more than a quarter on the same period last year, with more than half of those offences detected.

SNT Sgt Neil Ireland is delighted with these results and the recognition of the chief officers.

He said: "This is testament to the dedication and hard work of the Safer Neighbourhood Team members and the response officers who also cover this area."

"It demonstrates the strong community spirit and relationship the officers have with local people, who can have confidence that their villages are safe places to live, and anyone committing crime will be firmly dealt with."

"We regularly meet with our communities to find out any concerns they may have."

"These are discussed and prioritised monthly with partners to allow us to deal with any quality of life issues as well as crimes that are causing concern."

Move to beat bogus callers

A CAMPAIGN to beat bogus callers is being launched by police in West Suffolk who are asking neighbours to help elderly and vulnerable people stay safe and secure this summer.

During the past year there have been 36 distraction burglaries in the west of the county, with more offences expected over the warmer summer months.

Det Chief Insp Stuart Hudson said these are callous crimes, which Suffolk Police are committed to tackling.

He said: "Bogus callers prey on vulnerable and elderly members of society, and we tend to see an increase in such offences as the weather improves."

Suffolk Police advise homeowners to use the Lock - Stop - Chain - Check system to ensure bogus callers do not gain entry to property.

They should make sure the back door is locked when they answer their front door, and should check who the caller is.

Use a door chain when you answer the door, find out who is calling and what they want, and close the door while you check their identity.

Workers from gas, electricity and water companies should be carrying an ID card.

■ CHEQUE IT OUT... West Suffolk College rugby coach Nigel Brown presents the cheque to Jai Purewal, from Wooden Spoon, watched by players Matt Edison and Jack Payne.

'Spooners' charity boost

RUGBY players from West Suffolk College Rugby Academy presented a cheque for £1,832 to the sport's Wooden Spoon charity.

Almost 100 people attended the academy's end-of-year dinner, where a raffle for donated prizes and an auction of this season's match shirts raised a total amount which far exceeded expectations. The auction alone contributed more than £500 to the final total.

Jack Payne, from Great

Weinetham, Matt Edison, from Pakenham and Tyler Smart, from Lawshall, organised the event and handed over the cash to Jai Purewal, from the charity.

Coach, Nigel Brown, said: "To raise the total of £1,800 is a credit to the generosity of the players and parents and to the fantastic effort put in by Jack and his colleagues." Wooden Spoon is rugby's charity supporting mentally, physically and socially disadvantaged children and young people. The charity was founded by a group of English rugby supporters in 1983 when England's Five Nations season ended in failure, and the team was presented with a Wooden Spoon by their Irish opponents.

Waitrose in Bury St Edmunds supplied food for the evening and donated several raffle prizes. Gifts were also donated by Touch-Line Sports, Saracens Rugby, Wooden Spoon and the Friends of the Academy.

Hazy days for Hendrix tribute

A PURPLE haze will descend over Haverhill Arts Centre as top live band The Hamsters perform a Jimi Hendrix tribute show.

The concert, on Friday, July 11, at Haverhill Arts Centre, will see the band playing their annual show for loyal fans in the area. But it will be a different show to normal, as they'll be playing two full sets of Jimi Hendrix songs, to mark what would have been his 65th birthday.

The group, now in their 20th year, have performed over 4,000 shows and will appear in a new three-hour DVD documentary about the Fender Stratocaster, titled Strat Masters, also featuring Ry Cooder, Mark Knopfler, Jeff Beck, Chris Rea, Hank Marvin, Bruce Welch, Robert Cray, Rory Gallagher and others. Tickets for the Haverhill show are available at the box office on (01440) 714140.

■ HOOKED ON HENDRIX... the Hamsters will visit the arts centre next week.

Iron men and rockers all at the arts centre

MOSEY along to the Haverhill Arts Centre this Friday when Hooked on Country, Sold on Sixties return with their all-new show for 2008, The Best of Both Worlds.

Revel in the sounds of Elvis Presley, Patsy Cline, Johnny Cash, the Beatles and more in this brand new show, starring Texas Gun, Country Company, Maria Lee and Sidewinder.

Jump on this rollercoaster ride of memories from the best of the sixties and country music. It starts at 7.30pm.

■ Unfortunately the Cann Twins concert which was due to appear at the Arts Centre on Saturday has had to be postponed. If you have already purchased tickets please call the box office for a refund.

■ The arts centre's monthly afternoon film on Monday is The Waiting Room (15) with Anne-Marie Duff and Raif Little. Two strangers find their chance meeting in a south London train station, suddenly brings together two entirely separate groups of friends, colleagues, lovers and acquaintances in a tale of intersecting lives. This is an outstandingly-performed, thoughtful and quietly engrossing work. Come along for a 1.30pm start.

■ Robert Downey Junior, Gwyneth Paltrow and Jeff Bridges star in Iron Man (12A) showing on Tuesday and Wednesday at 7.45pm. Billionaire, industrialist and genius inventor Stark is kidnapped in the Afghan desert and ordered to build a diabolical weapon. Instead he constructs an indestructible suit of armour. Once free, Stark discovers a deadly conspiracy and he dons his powerful suit on a mission to stop the villains and save the world.

■ To round off the week, winners of the 2008 Haverhill Rock competition, Solstice, headline an evening of music from great bands in the Haverhill area on Friday, July 11. Solstice and Guests starts at 8pm. No unaccompanied under-14s and proof of age may be required.

Couple show views through the lens

A COUPLE who share a love of photography are holding an exhibition at Haverhill Arts Centre.

Terry and Sue Hartga are showing a selection of photographs in an exhibition titled Paired Vision until July 31. Although a couple for the past 36 years, Terry and Sue have come together as photographers only in the last five years. However, shared passions are evident and the exhibition title seeks to reflect this. The roots of Terry's work lie in his love of railways and industrial archaeology, where apparently ordinary objects, artefacts and fragments are made less ordinary, offering the viewer the chance to look again at the familiar. Sue takes her ideas from her East Anglian upbringing interpreting her experience through abstracted images, fragments and peeling surfaces.

Pupils tackle hard-hitting play

The pupils performed to appreciative audiences at the

HOME IMPROVEMENT

ADVERTISEMENT FEATURE

THE BENEFITS of replacement windows and doors are as great as ever – David Brown of Advantage Windows and Conservatories in Haverhill has discovered to his credit in 23 years of business.

Inevitably, the whole business of conservatories and replacement windows and doors has changed greatly over years. There are now hundreds of styles of doors and virtually unlimited styles of windows in white UPVC, cherry or rosewood effect UPVC as well as other colours including red, blue and green.

Replacement windows and doors can look so good today that, according to David "they don't look like double glazing at all. Unique to our system is the option of a fully sculptured profile which has lots of dimensions that are pleasing to the eye, and doesn't look like the familiar flat plastic window at all - it looks like the real thing, an authentic timber window."

Everything is made to measure – once an order is taken, the product is manufactured specifically for that client and success is greatly due to the personal touch. "I personally visit each potential customer because people like dealing with the owner of the business, and I can use my industry experience to advise the most suitable product for the job in question", said David.

Adding a conservatory continues to be an extremely popular choice. "Conservatories give people a completely different lifestyle – the conservatory quickly becomes the favourite room in the house not only with our clients but also visiting guests". Despite building over 250, David has never created two conservatories the same, as he works with the client to design each project individually.

"I can see the technical advantage and disadvantages of different systems on the market and have chosen a high specification of products, so I have done the "shopping around" for the customer. I just show the product to the customer and they can clearly see the difference for themselves. I have found the best and most technically advanced product on the market – but just because it's advanced that doesn't mean it's expensive - it still represents good value for money as our customers will testify - just read our letters board".

HAVERHILL WEEKLY NEWS

MOTORING

Ford's Kuga is on the prowl

CROSSOVER family 4x4s are coming at us thick and fast, albeit a little late. Only a couple of weeks after Renault introduced its Koleos, Ford has revealed its Kuga.

Frankly, having driven both of them, there is not much between them except the price. Renault's offering slightly undercuts Ford.

You have to admit that if looks were all that were needed to sell a car the Kuga would be a winner. It has a very stylish, chunky, purposeful look which will surely ring the "I want one of those" response in many people. It also has something else which would certainly interest me if I were considering one. This is the Ford fuelling system which will prevent you putting petrol in a diesel tank by mistake.

The car has a small plate over the fuel inlet and only if the correct size nozzle is used does it agree to open and let fuel in. It is a very easy error to make in the middle of today's rush-around existence and a very expensive one at that.

FIRST DRIVE

Ford joins SUV brigade

RODNEY TIBBS

A Haldex system is used to automatically transfer drive to all wheels as needed and very little – if any – involvement is called for on the part of the driver. Apart from this, the new Kuga's spec is relatively simple; one engine, a 2-litre diesel, and a six-speed gearbox as standard. There are two trim levels, Zetec and Titanium. Prices start at around £20,000.

The Kuga has generous space inside and a high level of finish. The rear hatch is split so that only the glass needed be lifted for relatively small objects. The full hatch gives excellent access to the generous cargo area.

It is also a very pleasing car to drive with an excellent gearshift and a very full range of adjustment on the steering column and wheel. The rather strange-looking handbrake looks a little daunting at first but it seems to fall easily to hand and certainly holds the car well.

The Kuga was seen as a concept car at the 2006 Paris show when it was called the Iosis, a name which I think preferable to the present choice. Kuga harks back to a not wildly successful model Ford dropped a few years ago and represents a pathetic play on Cougar. All round the name fails to keep pace with reality and does not do justice to what is an excellent product.

BASICALLY...

A very commendable newcomer to the rapidly growing family cross-over 4x4 choice. Probably the best looking machine on the market and one which should help Ford make up lost time.

Upgraded residuals boost for Fiat 500

SPECIALISTS who calculate future used car prices for the motor trade have upgraded their predictions on what they reckon the new Fiat 500 supermini will be worth in three years' time.

Residual values on some 500 models have increased from 42 per cent to 46 per cent of original list price.

That's an uplift of more than £350 on the car's value on a typical three year/30,000 mile contract. For buyers funding the car through contract hire or personal contract purchase (PCP) that should reduce rentals by more than £20 per month.

The residual value guides rate the entry level 500 1.2 Pop as having the best residual value at 47 per cent after three years.

"The residual value guides have reacted positively to the success of the 500 and have increased their used predictions accordingly. This is good news for those who have already bought one and it should help reduce monthly costs," says Adam Pumfrey, fleet and remarketing director, Fiat Group Automobiles UK.

"The 500 has also generated a great deal of interest from small and medium-sized companies for test drives as it offers drivers a high-profile company car that is low on fuel use and CO₂ emissions."

■ VOLKSWAGEN SCIROCCO... place your order now to beat the queue.

Order books open for VW's Scirocco

PLACE an order now for the Volkswagen Scirocco if you want one delivered in time for the new registration plate change on September 1.

VW predicts that it will sell almost 3,500 of the new Sports Coupes in the UK this year, so there's bound to be an initial queue. More than 11,000 people have signed up to receive email updates on the new car.

The launch model – the Scirocco GT 2.0-litre TSI – costs £20,940 for the six-speed manual, with a premium of £1,330 for the automatic version.

Early next year, another two engines join the Scirocco range – 1.4-litre petrol and a 2.0-litre diesel.

An extra trim level will be added then, too, with standard Scirocco joining the GT specification.

HELPING MOTORISTS LOCATE GOOD GARAGES

Retail Motor Industry Federation members adhere to a strict Code of Practice and pride themselves on providing high quality, value-for money services to the motoring public.

The RMIF is currently promoting its popular Consumer Motorline – 08457 58 53 50: on calling this number, consumers are put in touch with local RMIF garages. For the more IT-aware, a Find a Service postcode search facility is available on our website, www.rmif.co.uk.

The motoring public should have easy access to the very best quality customer care and service, and RMIF members – spanning over 8,000 businesses – are committed to providing this through their support of a robust Code of Practice.

The Federation represents not only independent garages, but also franchised and commercial vehicle dealers, motorcycle dealers and rider training centres, body repairers, motor auctions, MoT test stations, cherished number plate dealers and petrol retailers. Put simply, as the largest trade body for the retail motor sector, we are uniquely placed to advise consumers: the RMIF is a gateway to quality services.

Matthew Carrington RMIF Chief Executive: "In addition, using an RMIF member provides customers with the valuable reassurance of our mediation service – this facility will investigate any complaint made against a member, and will remain impartial throughout. In most cases it is successful in resolving disputes or disagreements fairly and amicably."

To locate an RMIF member, consumers can use the "Find a Service" search facility on www.rmif.co.uk or call the Consumer Motorline on 08457 58 53 50.

Opportunity to View University's Cambridge Campus £40 million Redevelopment

Anglia Ruskin University is inviting the local community to view the plans for their Cambridge campus redevelopment.

An exhibition of the conceptual plans and images for the Cambridge campus will be open for the local community to view on Tuesday 8 July, 10am - 9pm and Wednesday 9 July, 10am - 5pm. This event will take place in the University's Helmore building, which houses the main reception on East Road.

The aim of this development is to create an inspiring educational environment for school and college-leavers, university students, the local community and employers alike.

Anglia Ruskin University wants to maximise the potential of the existing buildings and spaces, as well as setting out a structured plan for new additions. The guiding principals, of the project, are flexibility, sustainability and the desire to reflect and reinforce the University's own unique sense of place and culture within Cambridge.

As part of a phased development programme a master plan has been developed for the campus which sees a two stage development creating state-of-the-art learning environments for a wide ranging curriculum.

The main body of the proposed phase 1 development will sit in the location of the existing Rackham Building with an element of extension to the University Library and Mumford Theatre as well as some new build to allow decanting to take place before Rackham can be demolished. There will be an extension to the existing library to house interactive learning zones linked to a central network with work stations allowing a flexible, wide ranging mix of use.

The new development will mark a significant step forward for Anglia Ruskin University.

To have your say, please come along to one of the public consultation events on Tuesday 8 July and Wednesday 9 July.

CRICKET ROUND-UP

Ton-up Powell turns on power

SAM Powell struck a century and shared a brilliant fifth-wicket partnership with Daniel Poole as Haverhill fought back to defeat Woodbridge by five wickets in Division Two of the Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship on Saturday.

The hosts, who had lost four of their last five games, restricted their opponents to 223 for 6 as vice-captain Simon Youngs took 2 for 45 and Poole claimed 2 for 53.

Haverhill were in all sorts of trouble on 27 for 4, but Powell made a blistering 124 and Poole hit an unbeaten 66 to guide the home side to 224 for 5.

Youngs said: "Sam was destructive and he just smashed it all over the place, while Daniel played more of an anchor role."

■ It has been a long time coming, but WESTON COLVILLE returned to form with a whopping 151-run defeat of Abington in Division Two of the Tucker Gardner Cambs & Hunts Premier League on Saturday.

Colville skipper Adie Westley has said all season that luck has been the only thing missing from his side's performances, but they made their own fortune with a imposing total of 272 for 8 courtesy of runs from Adam Curtis (34), Westley (83), Adam Taylor (30) and Alex Meddle (42).

David Furlow finished with four wickets for Abington, who struggled with the bat.

They were all gone for 121, despite good starts by James Webb (21), Stuart Duquemin and Russell Knight (both 28), while Nick Wilderspin picked up three wickets.

■ HORSEHEATH turned in a superb performance to bring an end to the five-game winning run of Cheffins CCA Senior League, Division One leaders Babraham on Saturday.

Babraham put 186 for 9 on the board thanks to Dale Archer's 87 and contributions from Chris Palmer (25) and John Woodgate (24).

Horseheath captain Gary Ellis was the pick of the bowlers with 3 for 44, while Robbie Ketteridge and Martin Giles both took two wickets.

Ian McNulty (3 for 26) and Andrew Palmer (2 for 24) tried their best for the Babraham with the ball, but Alan Ketteridge and Michael Ketteridge both hit 29 to steer the home side to 188 for 9.

■ WICKET-TAKER . . . Nick Wilderspin, who claimed three victims to help Weston Colville to victory over Abington.

Moore's the merrier after Adams win

NORTH Essex EBF Adams Trophy captain Kevin Moore celebrated his team's first victory of the season as they overcame North Cambridgeshire by 18 points to four at Haverhill on Saturday. The result also delighted North Essex president Bob Smith.

Despite having played in one of his team's two losing rinks, Smith said the match was played in excellent spirit, with North Essex thoroughly deserving their victory.

North Essex took the overall match by 169 shots to 150 with their award for the highest winning rink going to Malcolm Grimwood, Andy Barnes and Robin Thomason, who triumphed 28-14.

Following some torrid early-season results, North Essex produced a "satisfactory" result in the Newton Trophy at Sudbury on Saturday, according to Smith.

Although North Cambs went away with a 15-7 victory, due mostly to the 10 points gained from their 169-159 overall points success, North Essex managed to win on three rinks and draw on another. Smith was quick to praise the efforts of all his players and made special mention of the rink of J Holmes, and N and B Smith, who triumphed by 11 shots.

Team captain Alan Cutts was also delighted by his team's performance, adding that the overall points total showed an unfair impression of the game as a whole. But, he accepted that the system could not be changed for the foreseeable future, despite best efforts of some counties at national level.

North Essex now hope to build on their achievements in their next matches, where they face Lincolnshire, one of the front-runners in the competition.

GOLF NEWS

Triple delight for Haverhill

IT was a satisfying week for Haverhill teams in their inter-club matches, with the seniors recording two wins and the ladies one, with all the teams enjoying home advantage.

Haverhill seniors defeated their Stoke by Nayland counterparts 6½-1½ and were on the right side of a 3½-2½ outcome against Thetford seniors.

The Haverhill ladies' team notched up a 3-1 success against Gog Magog.

■ The Suffolk Alliance (Winter) AGM was held at Coupals Road and, prior to the meeting, a four-ball, better-ball competition was staged, which was won by the home pair of Andrew Fish and Wayne Penman with 45 stableford points.

■ Twenty-four hours later Lyn Fish did not quite manage to go home with the major spoils, as Gerry Wheatley pipped her by one point in the ladies' Midsummer Tankard.

■ Sarah Field was the winner of the ladies' June Stableford, finishing two points clear of Doreen Darbey and three ahead of third-placed Sally Price.

■ Haverhill's Suffolk Junior Cup team travelled to Gorleston, but were unable to give away nearly 50 handicap shots in the extremely windy conditions.

Anchor man Owen Longley managed a half, despite the 13-shot difference he conceded as the team went out of the competition by a 4½-1½ scoreline.

■ Felixstowe Ferry, who are in their first season in the Curry Cup, visited Coupals Road.

Haverhill's lead at lunchtime, following the morning foursomes, was 4-2 and their six lower category players boosted the lead to 9-3, as a result of the afternoon singles.

It was at this stage that Felixstowe struck back as their strong group of higher handicappers took a grip.

Dareagh Whelan and a very promising performance from 14-year-old Chris Vince limited the damage as the home squad took the match with a final score of 11-7.

Results (Haverhill names first):

Foursomes: Houchen/Brown 2up v Cook/Cook, Chandler/Whiting 2&1 v Livermore/Clark, Fish/G Scott 6&4 v White/Fowler, Whelan/Fairhead v 2&1 Coldfield/Thomas, Ward/Vince v 4&3 Clements/Tankard, Curl/Craig 6&4 v Bennenworth/Warren.

Singles: Houchen 4&2 v G Cook, Chandler v 4&2 White, Scott 5&3 v Clark, Brown 1up v Fowler, Fish 4&2 v Livermore, Whiting 2&1 v C Cook, Whelan 6&5 v Bennenworth, Curl v 2&1 Warren, Fairhead v 3&2 Clements, Vince 1up v Tankard, Ward v 2&1 Coldfield, Craig v 1up Thomas.

■ Gale-force winds wrecked many scores when Haverhill's President's Putter competition was staged.

Regular playing partners Mick Bennett and Brian Jones vied for a place on the honours board.

Both returned one-over 71s and the countback went in favour of Bennett, with Lee Chandler finishing in third spot on 72.

Leading scores: M Bennett, B Jones 71; L Chandler 72; S Boulton 73; A Carter 74; D Pipe, M Macnamara, J Marsh, R Gritty, J Brown, D Whiting, D Thomas 75; G Scott, S Tatum 76; R Scott 77; P Driscoll, S King, D Harkness 78.

Morrison signs for Leicester

LEICESTER City have swooped for Cambridge United's talented defender Michael Morrison

The young Haverhill-based defender signed on at the Walkers Stadium on Tuesday afternoon after tying up loose ends on a deal.

The fee with Nigel Pearson's Foxes, who were relegated to Coca-Cola League One last season, is for an undisclosed amount, but it is understood to be worth more than £100,000, with various add-ons depending on appearances, promotion and sell-on clauses.

The 20-year-old former youth-teamer, who had previously caught the eye of top clubs, such as Everton, Chelsea, Newcastle and Watford, signed a two-year extension to his contract last February after rejecting an initial deal at the end of 2007.

However, United director George Rolls described the move as a 'win-win' for both the club and the England C international.

He said: "It's a good deal for the club and a cracking move for Michael.

"An opportunity like this doesn't come along every day and it wouldn't be right to stand in his way, especially after he did right by us in February by signing a new contract.

"He could have kept his options open and walked away in the summer for a fee potentially set by a tribunal, but he signed a new deal with us and I felt honour-bound to let him talk to Leicester.

"We've agreed a good deal with Leicester and we wish Michael well. He is still only 20 and, hopefully, he will continue to carve out an exciting career."

Meanwhile, United chairman Phil Law has promised new boss Gary Brabin and his assistant Paul Carden more money will be available to bring in new faces after vowing to plough most of the money from the sale of Morrison into the club's war chest.

Law said: "There are two aspects to the Michael Morrison deal. The new contract he signed in February rightly put him at the top end of the club's earners, so the move to Leicester will free up money in that respect.

"Secondly, the up-front fee from Leicester, which was fairly decent, will come into play and I expect the lion's share of that to go back into the playing budget."

The United supremo was also very clear that Brabin and Carden were fully involved in the Morrison transfer as the squad continues to take shape for the new season.

He said: "Although they are disappointed to lose a good player, they know it was the best thing all round.

"We've been working away at the budget and building it up. It's certainly in excess of the playing budget we started off with last season."

And the management duo have already moved to find a replacement for Morrison with the signing of former Forest Green defender Anthony Tonkin on a free transfer.

■ ON THE MOVE . . . former Haverhill schoolboy Michael Morrison, who has made the switch from Cambridge United to League One side Leicester City this week.

Quick taste of Cup action for Billings

■ MOVED ON . . . Paul Shaw.

Haverhill Rovers have been no strangers to success in the FA Cup in recent seasons.

And new manager Larry Billings will get his chance to take the Suffolk club as far as he can in the competition after they were drawn against March Town in the extra preliminary round on August 16.

Rovers were led to the final qualifying round two seasons ago under former boss Steve Taylor, and he also carried them to the second qualifying round last term.

But Billings will have his work cut out for him if his new team do see off March as they have been drawn away to Leiston or Blackstones in the preliminary tie on August 30, then one from Stowmarket, Ipswich Wanderers, Whitton United or Cornard United away from home again on September 13.

Haverhill, who have recently lost Jamie Thurlbourne and Nick Impey to former boss Taylor's Wisbech Town, and Paul Shaw to Newmarket, have also been handed a tough tie in the FA Vase.

They will kick off the Vase on September 6 against Ridgeons League, Premier Division rivals Ely City at Hamlet Croft in the first qualifying round. The winners of that are at home to Long Melford, who they also square off against in the preliminary stage of the Ridgeons League Cup, in the second qualifying round on September 20. The victors from there meet either St Neots Town or Great Yarmouth in the first round proper on October 4.
